SHERIFF HICKS OF BIBB COUNTY, WITH POSSE, SCOURING THE COUNTRY FOR GUILTY PAIR.

By the Associated Press
MACON, Ga., Oct. 9.—A man hunt with a woman as one of the fugitives was in progress here today. Sheriff Hicks of Bibb County with a posse of one hundred men was searching the woods near the site of Camp Harris for a man and a woman charged with killing A. J. Elkins, and probably fatally injuring Tom Sanders near here late yesterday.

The victims, both well to do farmers, were driving towards home from this city each in his own wagon when they overtook a man and a woman walking. Elkins gave the man a lift and Sanders did likewise for the woman. After riding a short distance, the man is charged with dealing Elkins a death blow with a hammer which he had concealed on his person and the woman is said to have simultaneously attacked Sanders in the same manner. Sanders was robbed of $50 after which the couple took refuge in the forest, according to the police.

Fair Visitors Mean to Have the Rooms Next Year
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 9.—Reservations for space for conventions and displays to be held at the larger hotels of Oklahoma City during the state fair next year virtually have taken already all space available, according to the hotel managers. The entire supply of bedrooms could be disposed of at present for fair week next year the hotel men say, except for the fact that as a matter of policy they will not sell out all their space in advance in that manner.

Fair week and Christmas are alike in being filled up a year in advance, he manager of one hotel said yesterday. "Our books have been written up with lists of parties for Christmas week since last January. There will be luncheons, dinners and dances every day. The bedroom scarcity will not be so acute, of course, as during fair week, but even in normal times we turn people away every day. In regard to social functions for Christmas and fair weeks, people have learned that the early birds get the worms."

A NATIONAL LABOR TRUCE IS PROPOSED

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—A national labor truce to continue throughout this month was proposed in a resolution offered at the Industrial Conference today by Baruch, chairman of the delegates representing the public. All strikes and lockouts would terminate immediately.

Immediate arbitration of the steel strike was proposed to the conference by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Gompers proposed that the Industrial Conference appoint a board to mediate the steel strike and that the strikers return to work, pending a settlement. Under the plan each group in the conference would have a representative on the board.

Gavin McNabb of San Francisco proposed a permanent arbitration board, his resolution providing that all living ex-presidents be members. His resolution had the approval of the group representing the public. After being in session an hour and a half, the conference adjourned until this afternoon. Meanwhile the committee of fifteen will consider the resolutions submitted.

LIEUTENANT PEARSON FIRST TO REACH CLEVELAND TODAY

By the Associated Press
CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Lieut. Pearson, Jr., driving machine No. 8, was the first flyer to reach here from Buffalo this morning, landing at 9:17 A. M., during a heavy down-pour of rain.

WHICH OIL MAN MUST PROPOSE TO WAR WIDOW?

TULSA, Oct. 8.—If the words of a Pawhuska auctioneer are true it is now up to some oil magnate to propose to one of the forty-two war widows who made a quilt that was auctioned during the sale of oil lands at Pawhuska yesterday. The cost of the quilt and the opportunity of marriage was but $105. Forty-two pretty war widows of Pawhuska collaborated in producing the quilt and it was the understanding, according to the auctioneer, that the purchaser could choose a bride from the 42. Perhaps visualizing the disappointment of 41 of the war brides, E. W. Marland of Ponca City forfeited the quilt and it was resold several times.

It is when the hour of conflict is over that history comes to a right understanding of the strife, and is ready to exclaim, "Lo, God is here and we knew it not."

WEAVER NOT WORRIED AS TO WHO SUCCEEDS

By News' Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 9.—"Who shall be the next postmaster of Oklahoma City does not concern me," said Claude Weaver, who resigned a week ago to enter the race for congress, when asked last night concerning the selection of his successor.

"Anyone who can get the place is welcome to it. I have resigned for good and all and what becomes of the office is no longer any concern of mine."

John L. Graham, assistant postmaster, is acting as postmaster until Weaver's successor is appointed by the president. In spite of the fact that the position of postmaster of Oklahoma City is one of the most remunerative federal offices in the state and one of the most desirable no applicants have announced themselves openly.

LABOR GROUP TO SUBMIT PROGRAM

SHOWDOWN DUE IN INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE; FARMERS COMPLAIN THROUGH CHAS. S. BARRETT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—After three days spent in organization the industrial conference called by President Wilson will come to a showdown on the business to be transacted.

Only a brief session was held yesterday adjournment being taken to permit the groups representing capital, labor and the public to formulate such suggestions and proposals as they wish to submit for consideration.

None was ready for submission today except the preamble of a resolution to be introduced by Charles S. Barrett of Georgia, representing the farmers' union. The resolution will demand a comprehensive national agricultural policy.

All the groups were busy after adjournment considering suggestions of their members to be submitted to the conference.

Apparently with an agreed unanimity of action not otherwise characterizing the deliberations, the three groups refused to discuss specifically what was under discussion or what would be presented to the conference. Each group was understood to be ready with definite proposals on industrial problems affecting domestic peace, the labor group specially having a complete program already formulated, it was reported, but each seemingly waiting to see what the others were going to do before showing its own hand.

Freight Cars For Shipping Grain Seized

BRINKMAN, Okla., Oct. 8.—Eleven grain cars, sidetracked here because of the burning of a bridge near Elk City, were seized by a number of farmers of this vicinity Saturday and guards placed on each car while they were loaded with wheat to be shipped either to New Orleans or El Reno, Okla.

No Cars Provided.
The action was taken because of the inability of the farmers to get cars to ship their enormous wheat crop, none having been placed here for more than thirty days, although repeated requests had been made to the officials of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern railroad, the railroad administration and the corporation commission.

Although the agent here had orders to seal the cars and send them south Saturday night, the guards prevented this, and the loading was completed today. The eleven cars will move 17,000 bushels of grain, while it is estimated 70,000 bushels now await shipment from this point.

Wheat Crop Large.
Millions of bushels of wheat were raised here this year, the average yield being over twenty bushels to the acre. Only a few cars have been shipped from here this year, and a considerable hardship was being worked on the farmers because of their inability to move the enormous crop.

The action was taken independently no organization being behind the movement. Those interested stated today that they would continue to take cars as long as they were available and could be loaded out.

VETERANS OF DIXIE HEAR ADA SENATOR

BEFORE THOUSANDS LUTHER HARRISON DEFENDS SOUTH-ERN CAUSE BUT SAYS BOTH WERE RIGHT.

By Special Wire.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 9.—In the presence of thousands of wearers of the gray who jammed the immense auditorium at the opening session of the United Confederate Veterans here yesterday, State Senator Luther Harrison of Ada, Oklahoma, delivered the annual address to the veterans. He was introduced in the regular formal manner and when his name was pronounced the crowd went wild with enthusiasm.

Tall and gaunt, unassuming, and with the reputation of never having made deliberate preparation for a public address, Mr. Harrison, probably one of the best known orators of the South, opened his remarks by saying that he was a product of the old South and glad of it.

Saying that fifty-four years ago his father died in Virginia for the south and a year ago his younger brother died in France for a reunited country, State Senator Luther Harrison of Ada, Okla., delivering the annual address before the veterans' first meeting, declared both causes were founded, on the same ideals.

"But all this is forgotten," he continued. "We are now ready to cooperate in furtherance of the principles that the best Americans stand for. Socialism is an aggressive evil—one that should be fought if we are to be Americans."

The south, he asserted, with its comparatively small foreign population, should lead in pure Americanism.

Gen. K. M. Van Zandt of Fort Worth, Tex., commander-in-chief of the veterans, today received a telegram of greetings from Henry D. Lindsey, national chairman of the American Legion.

High School Notes.

The foot ball team of the Ada High school will leave Friday morning for Holdenville where they will clash in a hotly contested battle with the grid-ironsters of that city. The game will be a close one judging from the rumors which are traveling around about what a hard hitting team Holdenville has. The local lads are playing a better game every day, which the normal veterans will testify to as they failed to keep them from scoring Tuesday afternoon. Coach Rayburn is confident his grid-ironsters will win. He says, "They are little but when they don a football uniform and get into a game they are awful loud."

Girls' Physical Training.
The girls' physical training class is divided into three platoons. This division is made to give twenty minutes drill to each platoon, as the class is too large for all the girls to be accommodated at once.

Most of the girls have their uniforms; black skirts and blouses with red ties, and red laces in their black shoes.

The classes have taken up the wand drill, which is similar to fencing. This necessitates mental as well as physical exertion and is very beneficial to the girls.

The next drill to be taken up will be with dumb bells.

WILSON GAINS STRENGTH AND STEADILY IMPROVES

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—President Wilson continues to hold the slight improvement noted in his condition yesterday, said a bulletin issued today by Rear Admirals Grayson and Spitt, his physicians.

118 I. W. W.'S FORCED TO KNEEL AND KISS STARS AND STRIPES: 7 PUT IN JAIL; REST ROUTED

WEIRTON, W. Va., Oct. 7.—One hundred and eighteen alleged members of the I. W. W., captured in a raid near here today, were marched into the public square at Weirton, forced to kiss the American flag and were then driven out of town by police and deputies. Seven others, suspected of being the leaders, after kissing the flag, were taken to the county jail at New Cumberland, where they will be held pending investigation by federal authorities.

The raid was carried out without any serious disorder. Authorities of Hancock county and Weirton had been searching for the rendezvous of the alleged I. W. W. since several days ago when there appeared on the sidewalks here written threats that "the I. W. W. will get you." Last night the meeting place of the men wanted was located in an old barn on the Hancock county road south of here. It was surrounded by heavily armed deputies and a few entered the barn. The few men in the barn sought to escape without success.

A search of the place resulted in the finding of a large quantity of "red" literature—half a ton, it was said—in which the flag of anarchy was extolled and the prediction made that the extremists would rule the world.

Thirsty Ones Argue That Ban On Demon Rum Will Be Lifted When 3 Nations Ratify Treaty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—War-time prohibition may be lifted before November 1, if either Great Britain or the United States completes ratification of the treaty with Germany before that time. France and Italy have ratified. The treaty becomes effective, bringing the war officially to an end when three nations have ratified. Then the matter of lifting the ban on demon rum will be up to President Wilson.

Prohibitionists, however, have another card up their sleeves. They say the war will not be over until the Austrian treaty has been signed and they are hoping that there will be no relief for the thirsty before January 16, when national prohibition will go into effect.

Some persons hold that the United States will still be at war with both Germany and Austria, no matter how many other nations may ratify until our ratified copy of the treaty has been delivered to the Paris conference. Secretary Lansing takes this view. Attorney-General Palmer differs with him.

Senator Moses of New Hampshire said today he does not believe the Austrian treaty can be disposed of before January 8.

THREE AVIATORS KILLED IN RACE

SECOND DAY ON TRANS-CONTINENTAL AIR RACE RESULTS IN DEATH OF TWO CO-TESTANTS.

By the Associated Press
MINEOLA, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Three aviators had been killed, four of the sixty-two originally entered had been put out of the running and the status of several others remained unknown early today when the great transcontinental race over a 5,400 mile course between Mineola and San Francisco was resumed. Undismayed by the fate that befell their comrades yesterday on the first day of the great test, pilots who started out over the course as far west as Chicago and from San Francisco eastward to Salt Lake City were eager today to again start the grueling contest.

The men killed yesterday were Major D. H. Criss, and his observer, Sergeant Virgil Thomas, who were almost instant death in a crash at Salt Lake City, and Sergeant W. H. Nevitt, observer for Colonel Brandt, whose plane crashed at Deposit, N. Y. Colonel Brandt was only slightly injured.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—First Lieut. Selwyn W. Maynard, leader in the 5,400 mile transcontinental airplane race, took the air from Ashburn Field here today at 7:09 o'clock this morning. He headed for Rock Island 150 miles away. Lieut. Maynard, former Baptist minister's pilot in France during the war, and winner of the recent New York-Toronto air race, smashed all previous records for a New York-Chicago flight. He made the first flight between the two cities between dawn and sunrise.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 9.—After the arrival of four airplanes from the east and the departure of nine for Cleveland, word was sent to Rochester at 9:30 this morning to stop all other westbound fliers in the coast to coast speed and reliability flight. Rain was falling and a high wind sweeping across the course from the northwest.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Oct. 9.—Lieut. S. W. Maynard arrived here at 8:37 o'clock this morning, having made the 155 miles from Chicago in 92 minutes. He was the first cross country flier to reach this point.

Home Druggists and Doctors Take and Recommend Number 40 For The Blood

Mr. Theodore Gerke of the Gerke Drug Co., states: "A year or so ago my wife came into the drug store and said she was going to take a blood medicine. She looked over the kinds we had on the shelf and decided to try Number 40. After taking it a while she gave it to our son and one day I was complaining of that tired feeling and she said: 'I will dose you on 40,' and she did and it helped me so much that I have been recommending it to my customers and buy in gross lots." With scarcely an exception, druggists in Evansville and this vicinity endorse and recommend No. 40. An old and very successful physician remarked to me a short time ago on the street, "I am taking No. 40. It will prolong a man's life." Made by J. C. Mendenhall, 40 years a druggist, Evansville, Ind., Gwin & Mays Drug Co. (adv)

In the Assemblage of Girls' Coats

In the assemblage of coats for little girls certain kinds of cloth and certain styles are set aside for children from four years old upward to misses of seventeen. Warmth, protection against rain and snow, and durability are the first considerations in girls' coats and all these things have been looked after in the models presented for this season. Prices have advanced as sharply on children coats as they have on shoes and Baby Bunting's father could hardly be more profitably employed than when he goes hunting for rabbit skins to wrap the baby up in. Rabbit skin coats, undisguised by any dye and not masquerading under any other name, make coats for small girls. Squirrel, opossum, muskrat are the furs to make collars in cloth coats for the younger children.

For school wear there are heavy novelty cloths, plain on one side and plaid on the other, that are warm and good looking. Leather coats that cost less than cloth ones, will help solve the problem of warmth and durability without high price. Dark blue cloth coats lined with scarlet wool cloth are among the prettiest models that—speaking comparatively—are moderately priced, but moderately priced does not mean much in the realm of coats, either for youngsters, or grown people.

Fur fabrics (or wool furs) make very handsome coats for children and prove as durable as any cloth; they are more lasting than furs and richer looking than the inexpensive pelts. There are several kinds of wool fur suitable for children of various ages. Nearly all of them are plain, that is not made in imitation of a fur, and the coat pictured here is a fine example of good style for a girl of ten years or over. This is a straight-hanging coat, cut to flare somewhat. It has a wide felt that slips through a slash in the coat at each side and buttons with a large button and loop at the front. The wide shawl collar can be rolled up about the neck and face and there are small, triangular pockets to hide the fingers in when the coldest weather nips them. These coats are lined with plain satin usually and while quite dressy enough for any sort of demand, they may be relied upon for daily service and great resistance to wear.

About the Carat.

The "carat," the unit of weight peculiar to jewelry, was introduced from India. Man sought to record the weight of small objects by using tiny seeds. The barley grain was used in Europe. In the East the seeds of a vetch were in use, and it is from the Greek word for vetch (keration) that the now familiar term "carat" is derived.

The worst has happened. Congress has started to investigate the industrial situation.

JUDGE BUSBY PAROLES 2 CHICAGO RUNAWAYS

Juvenile court convened this morning with Judge Busby on the bench and temporarily disposed of the cases against Harry Kemp and Maurice Jacobson, two Hebrew boys who ran away from their homes in Chicago on October 1.

After an investigation of considerable detail the boys were committed to the care of B. Scheinberg, who placed them at the Commercial Hotel and wired their parents as to what disposition should be made of them.

Kemp stated that his father is a shoemaker in Chicago and the Jacobson boy is the son of an expressman. Kemp was born in England. He has attended school and is in the sixth grade, while the other lad claimed to be a seventh grade pupil.

Young Jacobson has had some experience at tramping, having made a trip to Arizona last summer where he spent two or three weeks and returned home. Kemp said he had never before left home and both boys claimed to have never been in the toils of the law until this trip. They stated that they had left Chicago penniless and had made their way by riding freight trains and blind baggages, eating only when some generous person gave them something. They were arrested at Bartlesville, but turned loose without punishment. They claimed to be en route to the oil fields of Texas, where they hoped to get employment. They now feel, however, that their adventurous spirits are thoroughly satisfied and want to return to their parents. They said they would pick cotton or do any other work to earn money for the return trip.

IMPOSSIBLE

Two men and a board might be all right as a start for damming a river; but they will never get beyond the starting point without help and more material.

The same is true of a business. A small income and a few goods may start things going; but the start will come to a sudden halt without reinforcements.

In the same way, the telephone company could serve a few people in a limited manner, and for a limited time, even if it could not pay expenses.

But the telephone company has to do business on a business-like basis, just as you. It has a payroll to meet and supplies to buy; and these require money.

As the telephone earns its money from the service it renders it must look to its subscribers for support. If these subscribers pay it enough money to insure proper service they have a right to demand such service.

LIGHT ON THE COTTON ASSOCIATION

There is more or less confusions between the purposes of the American Cotton Association and the World Cotton Conference to be held at New Orleans on the 13th to 16th of October.

The American Cotton Association is an organization in which the cotton farmers, cotton bankers and cotton merchants are grouped together for the purpose of protecting the interest of the great staple crop of the South. While we produce two-thirds of the cotton of the world and should command a reasonable price showing a profit, evidenced by better schools, better homes and better equipped farms, we have never received since the Civil War, until the last two or three years, a profit on this staple crop, which we practically have a monopoly on.

The spinners and cotton speculators, aided by the foreign buyers of Europe, have been able to manipulate the market until the South has been cheated of its birth-right for the last fifty years. After organizing the American Cotton Association, the spinners and speculators, especially the spinners of England, became very much alarmed at the concrete organization and purpose of the American Cotton Association, and they immediately called a convention to be held in New Orleans in October, presumably in the interest of greater production and better facilities of storing and have inveigled many of the bankers and in some instances big planters into believing that this was in the interest of the farmer. But the memory of man does not run back to the time when the spinner and speculator was interested in the farmer getting a better price for his products. They may be interested in tenses economics, whereby the cotton farmer might eke out a bare living, working his wife and children long hours, denying the children the right of an education, whereby he might be able to produce more cotton, more economically, that they might have it at a much lower price.

Immediately after the Armistice was signed, they placed cotton on the toboggan for pre-war prices and pushed it back from 35 cents a pound to 18 cents and 20 cents, fully confident that they would take their toll as they had been in the past. But through the time of the organization of the American Cotton Association, the farmers and especially the bankers who were holding a great deal of cotton paper, were saved from a great financial loss by being able to put cotton back to 30 cents to 33 cents.

Cotton has always occupied a false position in the economic life of the South. We inherited from slavery conditions an idea that cotton could be produced very cheaply and it never has been upon a sound, economic, business basis since the war. While the New England manufacturers, through a protective tariff, were taking care of producers of cotton goods and insuring themselves a liberal profit for the manufacturer, the South, year after year, was producing large crops of cotton that was not paying the cost of production.

The American Cotton Association at its meeting held in New Orleans September 4th, designated 36 cents a pound as a fair initial price for cotton, with an increasing scale of half a cent a pound per month until December 1 for cotton held. The report of the Board of Agriculture from Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana indicate that much cotton is being held by the farmers waiting for the initial price to reach 36 cents. Since that meeting, cotton has gradually advanced until it is bringing from 33 cents to 34 cents at this time. However, when it reaches 36 cents reservation cotton should be marketed cautiously so as not to break the market.

Never in the history of the world has it been so completely depleted of cotton and cotton goods as it is at this time. In July, 1918, we exported 218,000 bales, while in July, 1918, we exported 428,000 bales. In August of this year the exportation to foreign countries was considerably over doubled to what it was in 1918.

The cotton growers and bankers of the South should watch very carefully the spinners of the World's Cotton Conference to be held in New Orleans from October 13th to 16th, lest through some manipulation, by offering to build warehouses and stabilizing their foreign credits, we will walk into a new trap that will entirely demoralize our cotton business, which would tend to bring unrest throughout the South. The warehousing of cotton cannot be greatly recommended only as a means of holding cotton off of the market while the prices are abnormally low or unfair. It would be a sorry day for the South if millions of bales of cotton could be stored to take care of the needs and wants of the spinners for one or two years, helping to bridge them over the short crops and thereby holding the price below the cost of production. It is a great pity that all cotton cannot be disposed of within eighteen months after it is produced.

Mary Pickford as "Judy" In "Daddy Long Legs" Learns Lesson From Jug

QUAINT HUMOR INJECTED INTO SCREEN VERSION OF FAMOUS STORY AND PLAY BY DIRECTOR NEILAN.

One of the funniest of all the humorous things with which Mary Pickford's new and best feature, "Daddy Long Legs," which will be seen at the American Theatre, is loaded, in a series of scenes in which Mary, as Judy Abbott, takes too much hard cider.

The funny little "drunk" is not indulged in by Judy Abbott, the orphan child Miss Pickford plays with malice aforethought. It happens that she and a funny little orphan with a very freckled face have just led a "prune strike" in which they have sought to obtain better food for the children of the asylum, who are fed on thin soup and prunes.

Prohibition Matron Spoils "Jug." The tyrannical head matron has won the battle, being a large woman able to dominate the cowering little waifs who are charges of the institution, and to punish Judy, and the little boy who aided her in encouraging the children to strike, the matron puts them out in the yard with nothing to eat. A thief who has been stealing from a passing wagon, throws over the fence a jug of hard cider and some sandwiches.

Judy and the little boy have been praying for food. They think this dropped from heaven and proceed to eat and drink without inquiring the nature of the donation. So it happens that in the most innocent way both children become "happy."

Miss Pickford's portrayal of the surprised Judy, who punishes her enemies, gives jam to all the children and defies the ogre of a matron is wonderfully done.

It is only one of the masterful "bits" she does in this picture which carries Judy, the orphan, from her birth to her marriage to a rich man who sends her to college.

Every Branch of Cotton Trade to Be Represented

By the Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—Every branch of the cotton trade in addition to banking and transportation interests from all parts of the globe will be represented at the World Cotton Conference here October 13 to 16.

From England alone there will be 75 representatives, according to advices received from Liverpool. There also will be representatives from thirty other nations directly interested in the cotton industry. Practically every state in the union will have representation at the meeting.

Following is a list, which may later be extended of the countries which will be represented at the conference: Great Britain, Canada, Poland, Finland, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Czech-Slovakia, Belgium, Holland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Greece, India, China, Japan, Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Chile, Peru, Colombia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Guatemala, Mexico and Persia.

The delegates will represent billions invested in the cotton industry and allied interests. There will be the grower, ginner, seed crusher and manufacturer of seed products, compressor, cotton merchant, transportation and insurance agency, banker, spinner, manufacturer, textile merchant, converter, finisher and every recognized branch of the cotton industry.

Men familiar with the subject of cotton in all its phases will address the conference and participate in the business sessions during the four days meeting. Experts will deliberate on the problems confronting the cotton industry and will outline plans for improvements which it is expected will eliminate waste and have a strong tendency to develop the growth of the industry.

N. B. Stall returned last night from a three weeks' visit to his old home in Missouri. While he was in his home state he told them to "show me," and he says that he was shown everything in Missouri, and especially in St. Louis that tends to add joy and hilarity to a visit to the old hearth.

FRIDAY IS GIFT DAY AT NAPIER SCHOOL

The new addition to the Napier school is completed, only awaiting the installation of the furniture and fixtures for domestic science and art. Electric lights have been placed in each room, making it more convenient for lectures and entertainments. There have been installed draw doors between room A and the new room which, when opened, makes a spacious auditorium for general public gatherings.

A series of lectures is part of the program of the year's work, in addition to educative moving picture shows.

The enrollment for the first month is 20 more than the same time last year, but the call to "King Cotton" has been greater than any previous year, which can be attributed to the high wages for picking.

The patrons are deeply interested in the domestic science and art work of the school. It is the aim to have the children as far as practicable to bring their sewing to school and do it under the direction of the teacher, and in most cases make their own garments.

The domestic science will serve mid-day luncheon at cost after it gets into operation.

There will not be enough money on hand or available from the appropriation to secure the needed things for this department and we are appealing to the public for aid in the way of gifts such as will be useful. Simple recipes, old garments that can be made over and used to advantage here for school and community work, cloth for sewing, vessels for kitchen, dining room, tables for sewing and drafting on, thread, thimbles, needles, buttons, glasses, etc.

Friday of this week is set apart for gift day and any white friend or well wisher of the school who desires to encourage the effort is asked to contribute something. You may reach the principal by card and a messenger from the school will be dispatched for the offering.

Gifts of this nature will be accepted throughout the school year. We also ask that some of you offer suitable prizes for high grade work done by pupils as a double means of encouragement.

We are trying to help solve the "race problem" feeling that idleness and faulty education have been great factors in keeping up hatred and disturbance.

The dedication of the building will be in connection with a call meeting of the patrons for perfecting the organization of a Junior Red Cross society under direction of the Ada Chapter of Red Cross work.

I. B. McCUTCHEON,
Principal.

CO-OPERATIVE STORE VENTURE IN N. DAKOTA

By the Associated Press

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 9.—Thirty-one stores operating in North Dakota at present, with expectations that before Jan. 1, 1920, this number will be increased to 38, is the record of the Consumers' United Stores Company, a Nonpartisan League business venture. The company's assets are estimated at more than $1,000,000.

The man responsible in a large measure for the growth of the company and the directing genius of the corporation, is H. A. Paddock, general manager, who in little more than two years, has built up a system of stores that compares favorably with that of other chain store companies of the country. The first store of the company was established at Kenmare, N. D., in November, 1917.

The company operates on a cash basis and each contract holder pays $100 for the privilege of buying merchandise from the stores at a price "not exceeding ten per cent of the wholesale market price, plus transportation charges." The company has nearly 11,000 contract holders and the greater part of its capital—$200,000 in cash and the balance in notes—comes from this source.

The privilege of making a contract with the company is not restricted to farmers, but any one permanently located can buy from the store in his locality upon signing a contract and paying $100, with a special rate of $10 per year for wage earners.

The men who originally started the stores were Norbert O'Leary, Charles H. Heck and H. L. Elliott, each subscribing $1,000 for the initial work, but the stock of the company at present is held by Fred Miller, president; Spurgeon Odell, vice pres.; W. G. Johnson, secretary-treasurer and William Lemke, who is vice president of the National Nonpartisan League.

No Worms in a Healthy Child. All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

Permanent Colors. Ancient Egyptians had a marvelous knowledge of colors, and they understood fully what colors would last. In the Egyptian papyri the ground colors are as good as ever they were. The Egyptians worked their outlines in lampblack, used clay for their whites, ochres for their yellows, and for green they used perhaps green jasper or mixed blue carbonate or copper with ochre. All these colors are permanent.

Silly Old Superstitions. In the highlands of Scotland it is taken as a terribly unlucky sign if a dog should run between the bride and groom on their wedding day, and brides still tell the bees of their wedding and decorate the hives for the occasion. In parts of England and Scotland there exists an ancient custom for which no one seems to know the reason, by which part of the wedding cake is broken over the head of the bride and the guests all scramble for a piece.

Roughing It. Robert and his father were stranded one night out in a country district. Their car had broken down and they were obliged to stay all night in a humble little home. Everything was strange to Robert, who was strictly a city child. When he returned home I heard him tell his little neighbor friend: "Say, it was great! We slept on a feather bed and washed in their dishpan on the back porch."

THE OLD TALE OF THE REINDEER IN LAPLAND

By the Associated Press

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 9.—Vilhelm Stefansson, the noted Arctic explorer who returned from the polar regions several months ago and who spent the summer in the Canadian Rockies writing a book, is returning to Ottawa to urge the federal government to favorably consider his recommendations for reindeer and musk-oxen ranches in the unsettled regions of Northern Canada.

Stefansson spent several weeks in the Northwest territory on his way back to civilization. He holds that the country is perfectly adapted to the reindeer and musk-oxen industry and declares that the government not only can use this plan to open this territory to settlement but that it can put reindeer meat on the market and help reduce the high cost of living. Much of the unrest in Canada has officially been charged to soaring prices for necessities, particularly food and clothing.

"It's an old story—the tale of the reindeer in Lapland," said Stefansson upon his arrival here from Lake Louise. "Chicago packers often boast they can every part of the hog, including the squeal. Why, Laplanders had this idea a thousand years ago. The reindeer provides them with food, fuel, clothing, household materials and implements for hunting. The United States government has already recognized the industry and is importing reindeers to Alaska. This move has been undertaken partly in the interest of the Eskimos. Their ordinary means of earning a living have been wrecked by Anglo-Saxon competition. The American government started the industry with 1,280 head of reindeer and at present I understand they have 20,000 head, notwithstanding the fact that 20,000 carcasses are used for food annually.

"Approximately 1,000,000 square miles of virgin country in the wonderfully watered Canadian Northland is available for this industry. In a few years we could have millions of these valuable animals. It is quite possible to keep 50 animals on a square mile of this land.

"The reindeers probably would have to be imported from Norway. They would cost about $75 each over there and probably would cost the government about $125 each when delivered on the new grazing grounds. A herd of 1,000 would give us a good start for, once in their new home, the cost of maintenance would be very low. There would not be any barns to build nor any hay to cultivate, nor any woods to be felled. One man can look after 1,000 reindeer."

Stefansson believes that Northern Quebec, Labrador, Northern Yukon territory and the country north of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are all available for the Arctic animals.

Waifs Mothered by Ash Cans Find Life Tragic in "Daddy Long Legs" Film

"Daddy Long Legs," the motion picture production of the great story by Jean Webster, in which Mary Pickford will be seen at the American is an attraction which will have universal appeal, for it is filled with children, and their doings. Moreover the children are not those we see every day, with fathers and mothers to care for and protect them, but little children who are the charges of an asylum which is sadly mismanaged.

Miss Pickford has the role of Judy Abbott, a twelve year old girl, full of life and fun, who dodges the cruel punishments of the superintendent of the John Grier Orphanage, to run off and help the little ones who are faring ill on the miserable diet and poor care they receive.

Child Parts (Cleverly Enacted). More than a score of orphaned children, some of them the most clever child actors who have ever been seen on the screen, aid Miss Pickford in the earlier scenes in the big orphan asylum. Clad in striped cheap cloth, fed upon prunes and thin soup, forced to work at hard tasks, and above all lacking the kindness and love which should be given children, these babies grip the hearts of everyone who sees the picture.

Miss Pickford is assisted by a number of children among whom is the funniest and most freckle-faced lad ever seen in a picture. How he and Mary provoke and carry through a "prune strike" is one of the episodes of the picture in which humor and pathos have a constant struggle for the upper hand. American Theatre today and Friday.

WHITE SOX HOPE TO EVEN SCORE

ELATED OVER THEIR VICTORY OF YESTERDAY, THE SOX HOPE TO GET EVEN IN TODAY'S GAME.

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Again contenders for the world's baseball championship by their 4 to 1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds yesterday, the Chicago White Sox returned to Comiskey Park today to make a determined effort to even up the series in the matter of games won. Regarded as virtually out of the race for premier baseball honors when the Reds took the first two games of the series at Cincinnati and then took two out of three here, the American pennant winners apparently found their long lost batting eyes and the two victories they hammered out on successive days on foreign soil, brought a return of confidence in the ultimate outcome to the supporters here.

Needling but a single game to bring his team championship, Manager Pat Moran was expected to send Eller to the mound today in the eighth game of the series. Claude Williams, twice defeated by the Reds but holding them to an aggregate of eight hits in the two games, was expected to be Manager Gleason's selection for mound duty.

U. S. TROOPS HAVE NOW QUIT ARKANSAS TOWNS

HELENA, Ark., Oct. 9.—Part of the force of federal troops stationed here and at Elaine as a result of the racial disorders in the southern part of Phillips county will entrain for Camp Pike, at Little Rock, today, it was announced by Major Cullen, commanding the soldiers here.

A sufficient number of troops will be left to preserve order and handle any emergency, Major Cullen asserted. The situation following the negro uprising has become virtually featureless.

No formal hearing will be held in the cases of alleged negro leaders now in custody, it was declared, though interrogation of witnesses by the committee of seven behind closed doors will continue and evidence thus obtained will be placed before the grand jury, which convenes here October 20.

The condition of Ira Proctor, young white man, who was wounded in the fighting last Wednesday morning at Hoop spur was reported considerably improved tonight by hospital officials.

Search for Robert L. Hill, alleged president of the Progressive Farmers and Household Union of America, the organization in which it is said the negroes were banded for the uprising which it has been revealed was planned, has been extended to adjoining states. He was seen at Winchester, his home Sunday night, it was reported today, but is reported to have fled to Louisiana.

TULSA MAN IS NAMED AS ODD FELLOWS HEAD

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 9.—The next grand lodge of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will be held at Muskogee, it was decided in convention here yesterday.

The question of erecting a grand lodge temple was left with a committee empowered to act. On this body, ten appointees are to act with the grand lodge officers just elected and installed: E. B. Kline of Tulsa, grand master; Thomas G. Andrews of Stroud, deputy grand master; Randall U. Livesay of Anadarko, grand warden; G. W. Bruce of Guthrie, grand secretary; and G. W. Schlegel of Chandler, grand treasurer.

When offers of Oklahoma City, Muskogee and Tulsa for the grand lodge temple have been made, if one is of a site worth $10,000 and is better than either of the others, the committee has power to proceed with letting of contracts for the building. The Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce submitted a new sealed proposal yesterday.

Officers appointed by the grand master were: L. M. Kelly of Comanche, grand marshal; J. K. Wright of Oklahoma City, grand conductor; O. Reedy of Tulsa, grand chaplain; D. E. Huffman of Oklahoma City, guardian.

Divorce Mill.

"J. S. Fortenberry vs. Lue Fortenberry, divorce," is the style of a case filed today in the district court, B. C. Wadlington representing the plaintiff. It is set forth in the petition that Lue has been an unfaithful wife, having deserted her husband some years ago, and he has not been able to communicate with her for many months, not knowing her address. Wherefore Mr. Fortenberry, on the grounds of abandonment, asks that the bonds of matrimony be duly and legally severed.
